

WHAT WE DON'T UNDERSTAND ABOUT TRUST

Trust is on the decline, and we need to rebuild it. That's a commonly heard suggestion for making a better world ... but, says philosopher Onora O'Neill, we don't really understand what we're suggesting. She flips the question, showing us that our three most common ideas about trust are actually misdirected.

Baroness Onora O'Neill is a philosopher who focuses on international justice and the roles of trust and accountability in public life.
